

Highly pathogenic Avian Influenza subtype H5N6 in captive birds in Germany

Standing Committee for Plants, Animals, Food and Feed
19 September 2018

HPAI H5N6 – captive birds (Wismar, Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania)

Affected Holding:

133 captive birds of rare and endangered breeds (kept for exhibitions) (113 ducks, 3 geese, 17 chicken)

Suspicion:

31.08.2018: 11 ducks, 3 geese died (clinical signs)

Confirmation:

01.09.2018: H5N6 HPAI (Land Lab + FLI)

Culling and safely disposed of/disinfection:

01./02.09.2018

Epidemiology:

no movement of captive birds / products outside the affected holding in 2018

Risk analysis of the competent authority:

no restriction zone established

Source: unknown; wild birds? → AI-monitoring 2018: no positive results

Thank you for your attention!!!