

Ministero della Salute

ASF situation in Italy

Directorate General for Animal
Health and veterinary medicinal products

Trend of outbreaks in wild boars at national level in 2023

Piedmont: 225/1080 WBs tested

Liguria: 145/606 WBs tested

Lazio: 48/668 WBs tested

(last confirmation 17

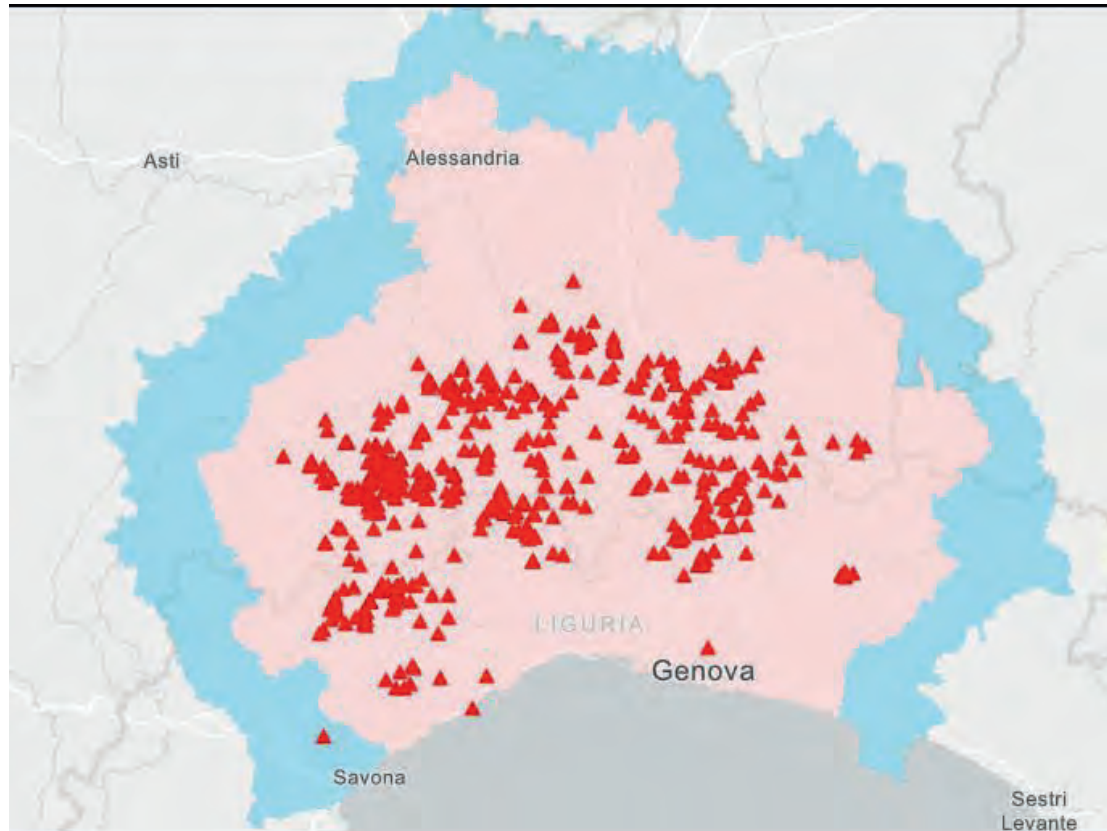

September 2022)

In 2022-2023 in the three regions in total 650 PCR positive in WBs

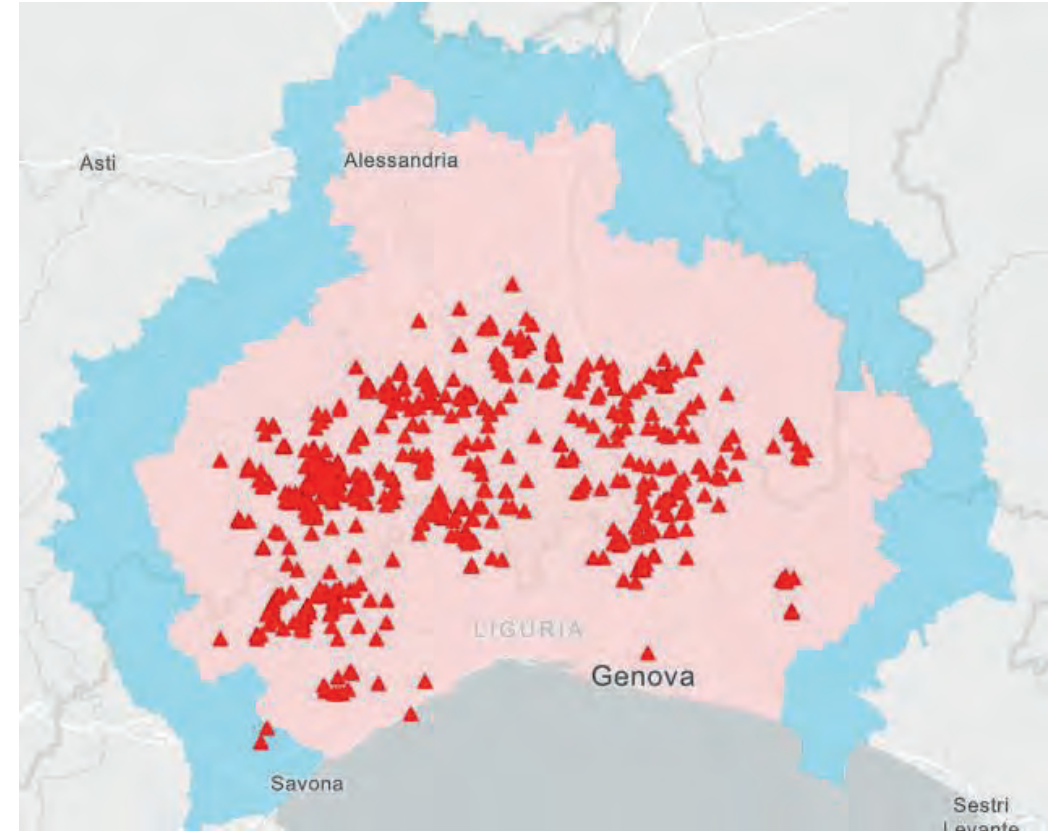

Sardinia is not included because last PCR confirmation was in 2019

ASF cases in wild pigs and outbreaks in confirmed domestic pigs, during the last 15 days

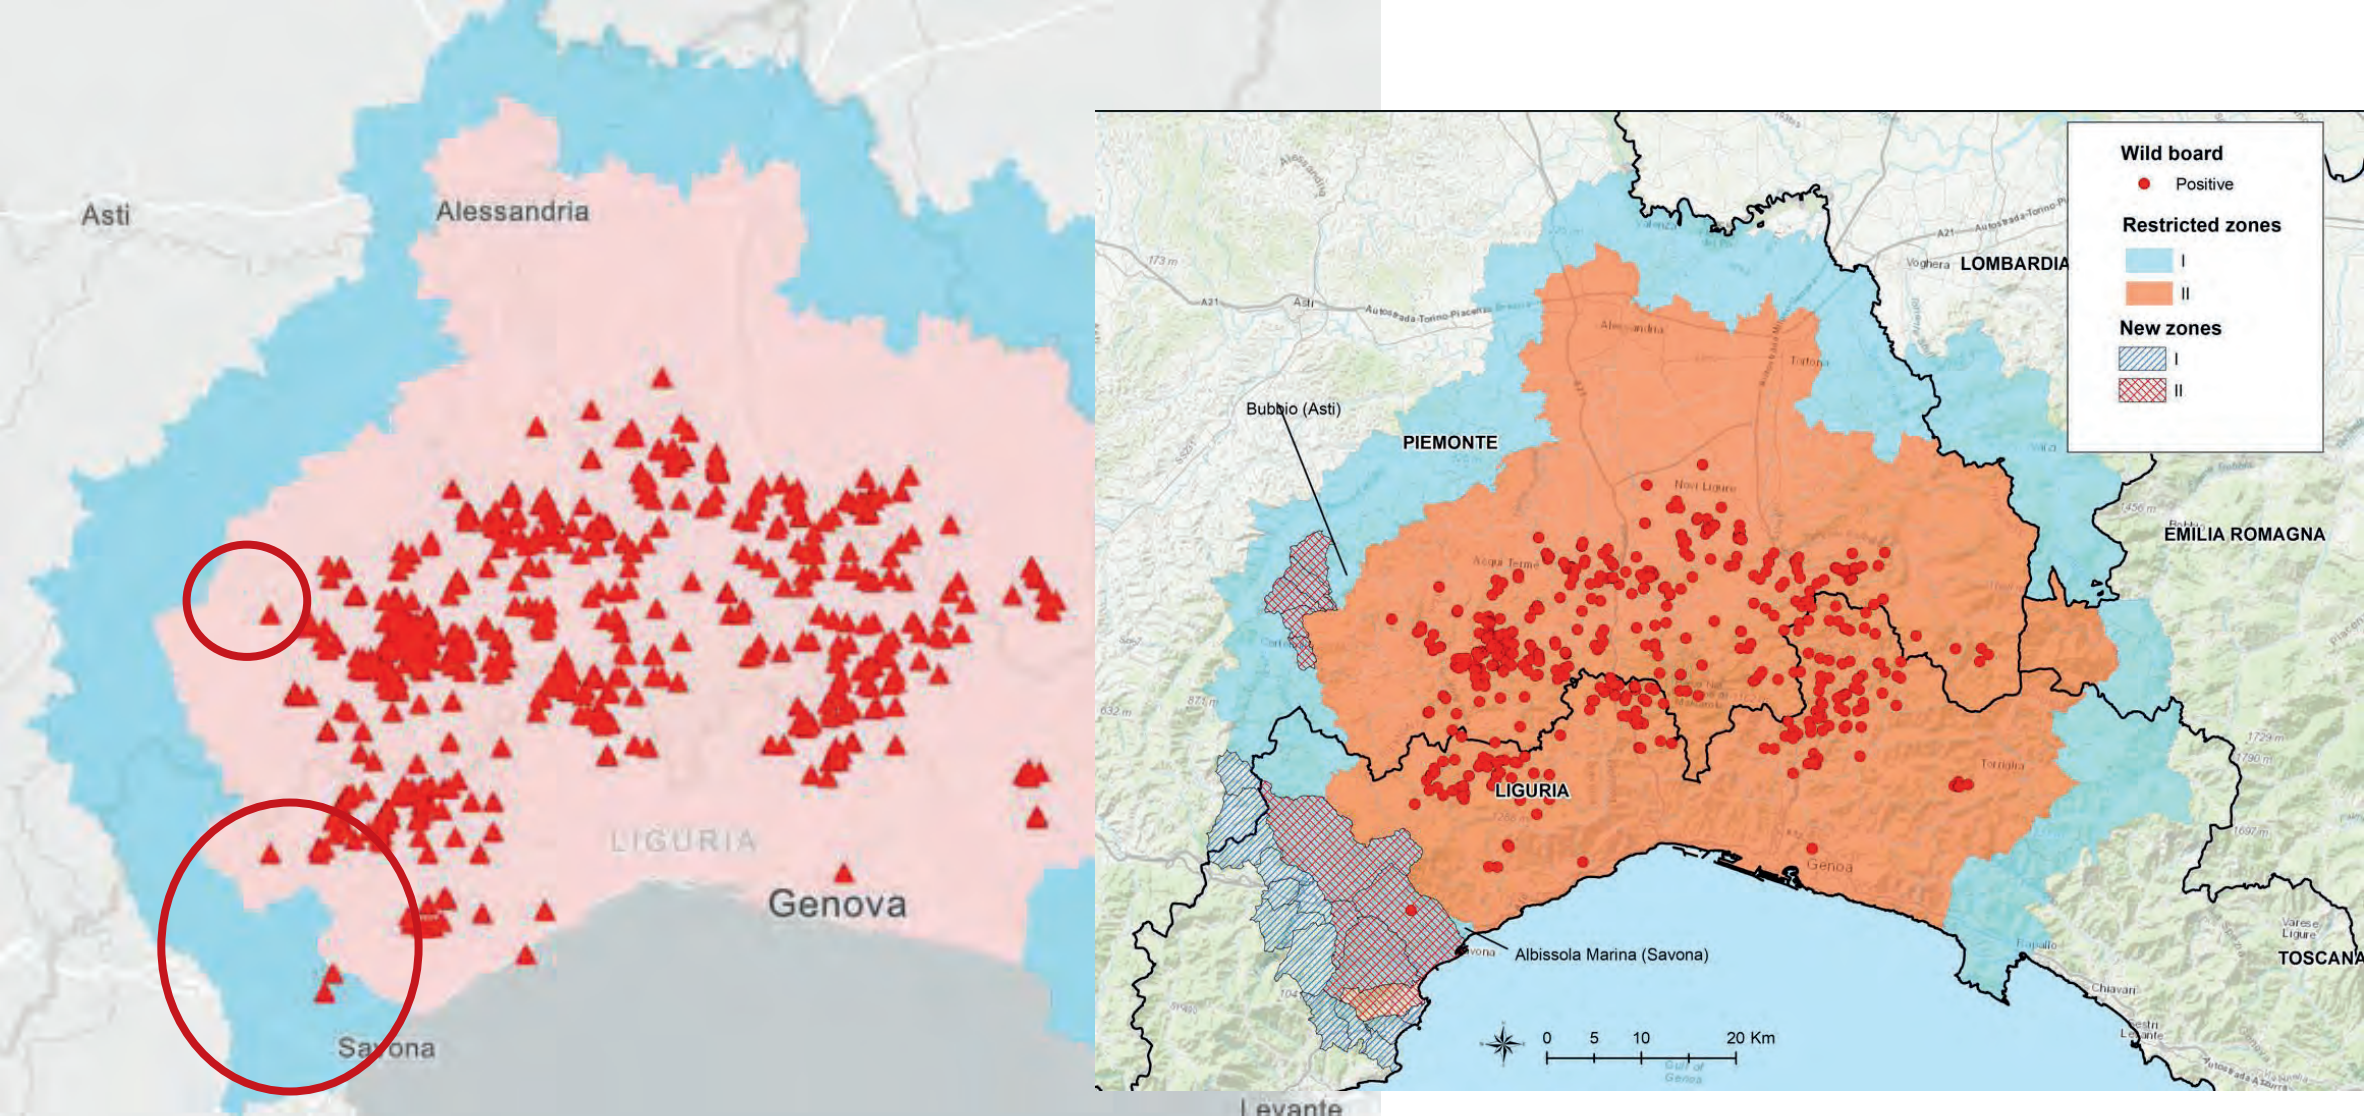

10/04/2023

23/04/2023

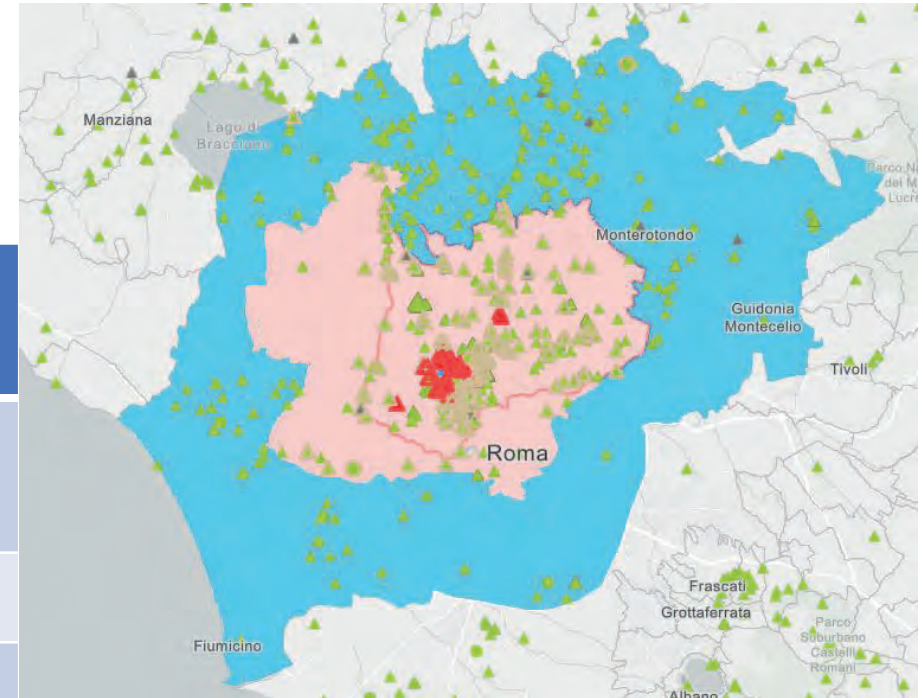

Enlargement of Part I and Part II zones – Implementing Regulation (EU) 2023/594

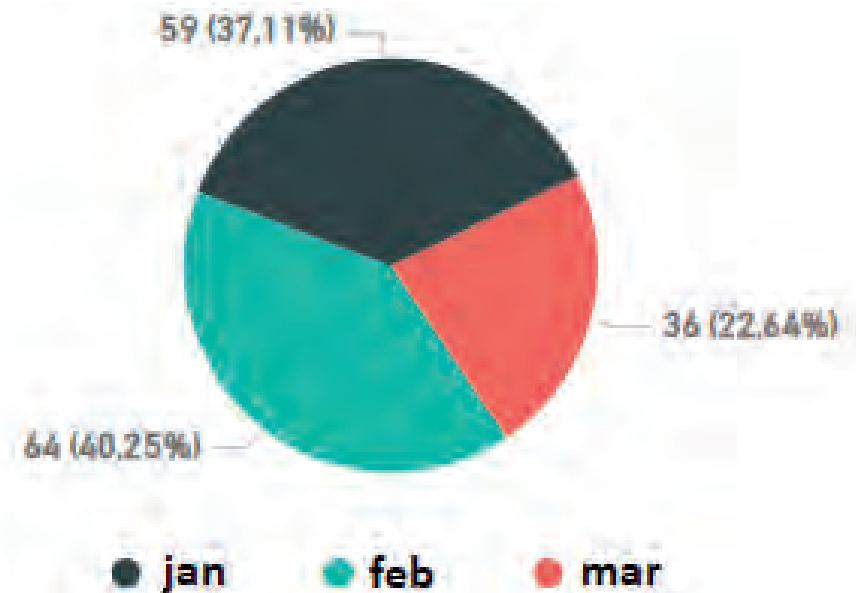

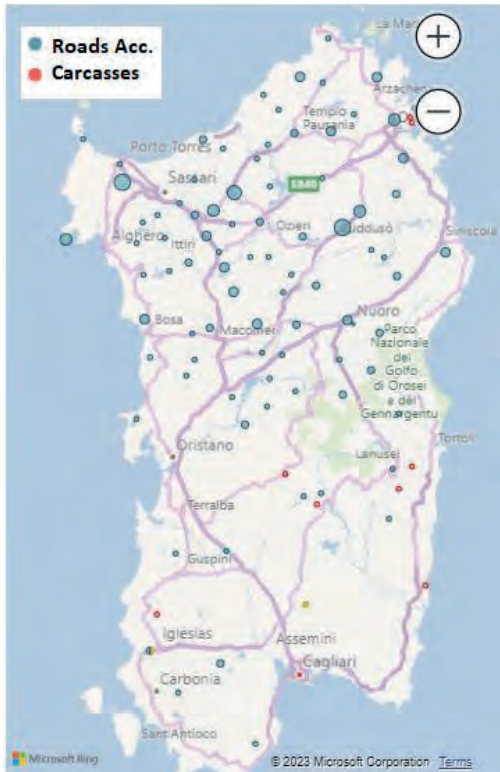

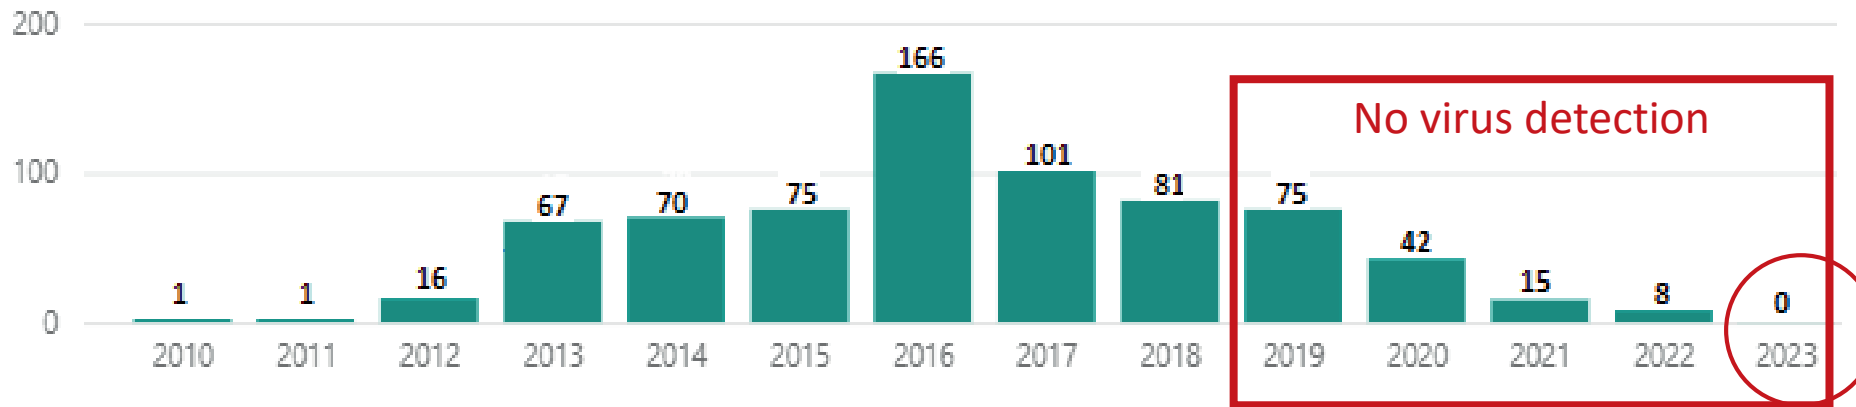

Lazio (Rome) updated to 24/04/2023

| Zone | n. Samples | WB Positives | WB Negatives | Domestic positives |
|----------------|------------|--------------|----------------------|--------------------|
| Rome Part II | 668 | 48 | 613 (2 not eligible) | 2 (1 outbreak) |
| Rome Part I | 342 | 0 | 342 | 0 |
| Rome Free zone | 290 (+28) | 0 | 264 | 0 |
| Frosinone | 174 | 0 | 171 | 0 |
| Latina | 56 | 0 | 56 | 0 |
| Rieti | 117 | 0 | 106 | 0 |
| Viterbo | 228 | 0 | 220 | 0 |

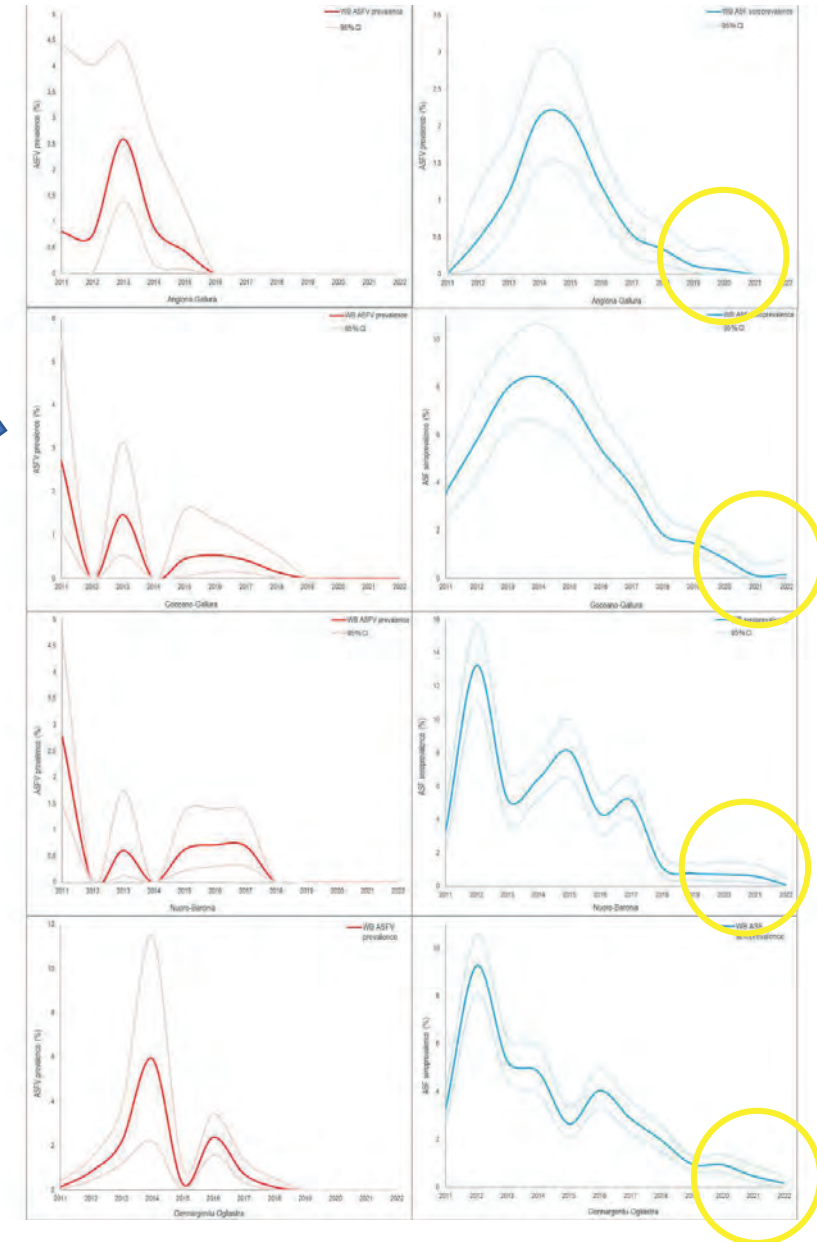

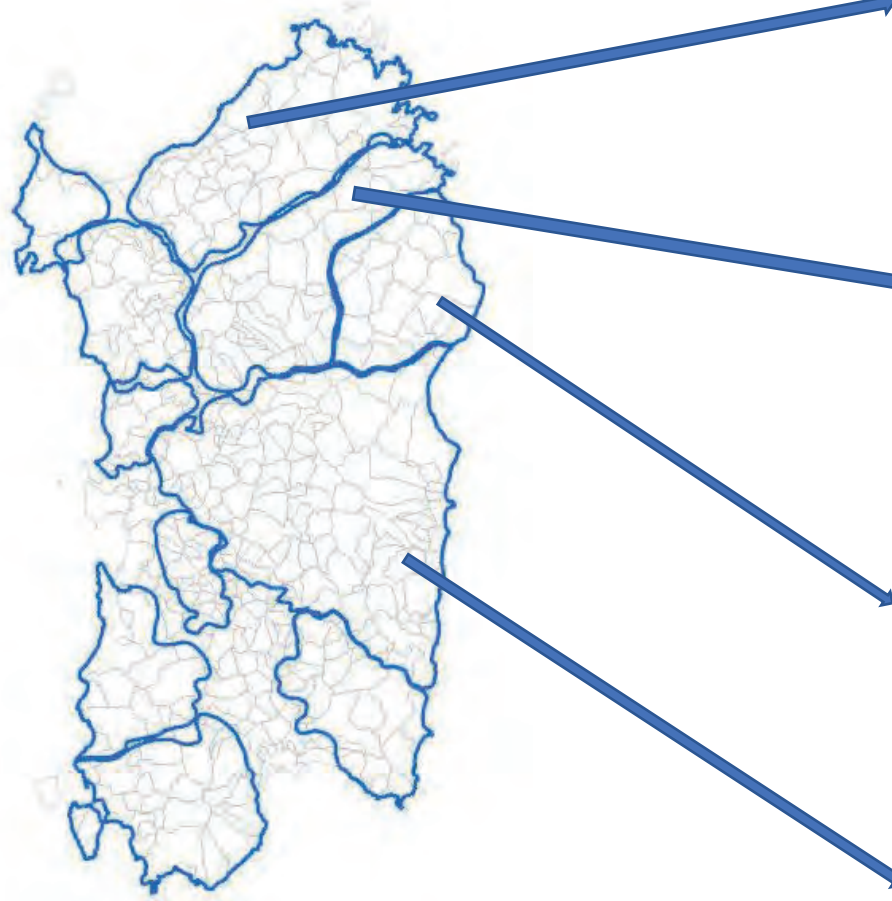

Sardinia WB surveillance

Improvement of ASF epidemiological situation in the main high risk areas

Seropositives are significantly decreasing since 2019

Seroprevalence in 2022-2023 is confirmed about 0%, and it is still decreasing

Ministero della Salute

Thanks for your kind attention