

Dear DG MARE

European Fishmeal and Fish Oil Producers hereby declare our intention to sign EU Code of Conduct on Responsible Food Business and Marketing Practices.

As industry association for the European Fishmeal producers, who deliver rich ingredients to the European food chain, especially the growing aquaculture industry, we find it to be evident that we join in on the road to securing sustainable food system in Europe, the rest of the world to follow.

We therefor strongly support this Code of Conduct.

Sincerely
