

Ministry of Environment and Food of Denmark
Danish Veterinary and
Food Administration

Outbreak of LPAI H5N2 in Denmark in a mallard holding

SCoPAFF 12-13 July 2018

Outbreak of LPAI H5N2 in a mallard holding, June 2018

LPAI H5 detected 26 June 2018

Holding with mallard duckling

Situated near the town Faksinge, Zealand

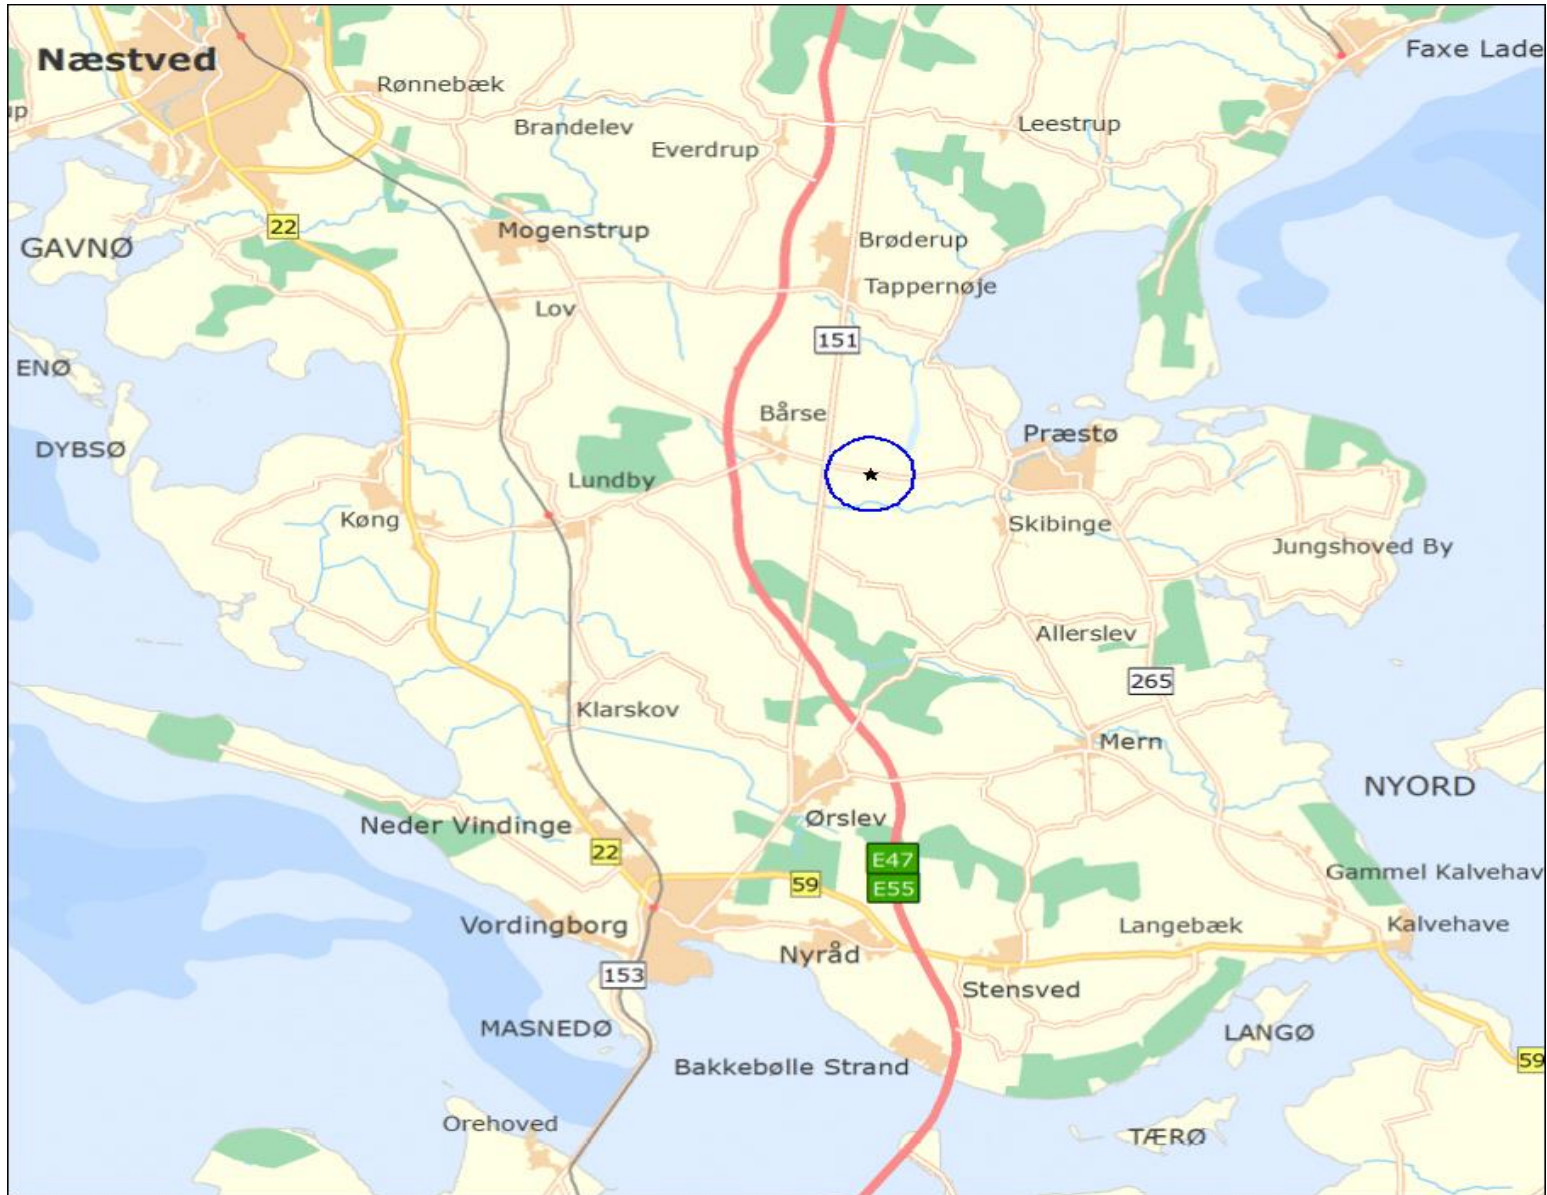

Farm data:

2.667 mallard ducklings
(1-4 weeks old)

12 hens (2 years old)

Retricted zone of 1 km around LPAI H5N2 outbreak near Faksinge

Outbreak of LPAI H5 in a duck holding, May 2018

- Tested mallard ducklings in accordance with the active surveillance programme for AI
- LPAI H5N2 detected in cloacal swabs
- No clinical signs
- Culled by CO₂ in containers
- Preliminary cleaning and disinfection approved 28 June

Outbreak of LPAI H5 in a duck holding, May 2018

Established 1 km restricted zone

Two hobby poultry flocks and no commercial poultry holdings within 1 km zone

Expect that the restricted zone can be lifted 19 June 2018

Suspected source: Wild birds

Thank you for your attention

