

Avian Influenza Kamperveen The Netherlands

SCOPAFF April 2018

12 March 2018

19:07 Notification of clinical signs of Avian Influenza on a duck farm.

- Nasal mucus
- Lameness, nasal
- An increase of dead animals

Meat duck farm

- 2 stables
- 14.700 animals
- 14.133 animals

12 March 2018

- Animal disease specialists visits farm they cannot exclude AI so official samples are taken and sent to WBVR National Reference Laboratory

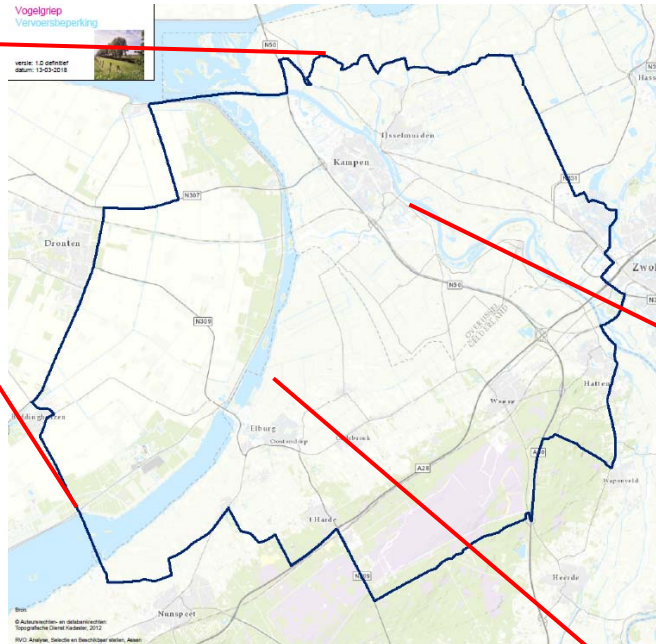

13 March 2018

Result of samples H5 positive in combination with increasing dropouts
HPAI expected.

- Implementation of protection and surveillance zone
- National prevention measures* (confinement, biosecurity) were still in force
- After appraisal all animals are culled also the animals of the neighbouring farm
- Screening 3 km

Neighbour
40.777 broilers
2 stables

10 Km

3 Km

3 km zone

- 4 broiler farms
- 1 laying hen farm

10 km zone

- 2 egg packing stations
- 8 broiler farms
- 6 Laying hen farms
- 3 meat duck farms
- 4 breeding companies

22 March 2018

Result of lab test H5N6

Samples taken during screening were tested negative for Avian Influenza.

National measures

On 13th April national measures are lifted

- This includes the lifting of Protection and Surveillance zone Kamperveen
- Emphasized biosecurity measures are in place
- Adaptation of the national measures
 - No standard culling of poultry in 1 km zone
 - Based on advice of specialists
 - Special measures are in place for these farms